As of today (06), companies with revenues between R$ 380 thousand and R$ 10 million, has available a special line of credit offered by the government to pay employees' salaries. Provisional Measure 944 was published on Friday (03). Employers can fund up to two payrolls with a credit limit of two minimum wages per employee, and the balance can be financed within 36 months with a 6-month grace period.

Major companies such as Wex, Renner and Anima de Educação launched the #nãodemita (#donotfire) manifesto. The manifesto proposes to wait for the end or reduction of social isolation in the country for a new analysis on the economic impacts that the pandemic will have. In 24 hours, more than 1,000 companies joined the movement.

MARKET

The Ibovespa closed down 3.76% on Friday (03), pulled by the concern of the new coronavirus and the high unemployment rate announced by the United States. However, on Monday (06), the European and Asian stock markets operated on a high, in parts due to the reduction in the number of deaths in Spain and Italy. In Tokyo, the stock market closed up 4.2%; Frankfurt, up 4.30% and Madrid, 3.29%.

TOURISM

Tourism has used technology as an ally to promote destinations and generate, in future travelers, the desire to know places. In addition to the various "lives", real-time cameras are available in tourist places. Bariloche is one of the destinations that promoted the #vouficaremcasa campaign and promotes virtual tourism. Experiences such as the Boreal Aurora, safaris through Africa, visit to Times Square and paradisiacal beaches are some of the options.

TRANSPORT

The work of truck drivers has been essential to avoid the disruption of the country. Companies are reviewing protocols that offer more security while bringing more scope to delivery services. On Time Log had to readapt their network to absorb demand. With more people in isolation, online sales continues to grow and other adjustments continues to be made to meet the delivery time.

BRAZILIAN STATES

Amazonas: The capital Manaus is on the list of cities that should see cases increasing.
